college community. The specific dates and details of these events will be decided in consultation with the concerned faculty members and student representatives.

To prepare Class Time Table & Subject Allocation:

The Principal emphasized the importance of an efficient class timetable and subject allocation for effective academic operations. It was suggested to form a committee comprising faculty members from various departments to develop a comprehensive timetable that optimizes resource allocation and minimizes scheduling conflicts. The committee will take into account student preferences and ensure a balanced distribution of subjects.

To prepare Academic Calendar and Departmental Calendar:

The Principal proposed the preparation of an Academic Calendar that includes important dates such as examinations, holidays, and academic events. This calendar will provide students and faculty members with a clear overview of the academic year. In addition, departmental calendars will be created to outline specific activities and events related to each department. Faculty members were requested to collaborate and provide input for the calendars.

Conduction of Internal Examination & its assessment:

To monitor students' progress and ensure continuous evaluation, the Principal suggested conducting regular internal examinations and assessments. Faculty members will be responsible for designing appropriate evaluation methods and conducting timely assessments to provide feedback on students' academic performance. The assessment schedules and evaluation criteria will be communicated to both faculty and students.

To conduct Seminars, Conferences, Industrial Visits, Educational Tours:

The Principal emphasized the importance of providing students with opportunities for practical exposure and learning beyond the classroom. It was proposed to organize seminars, conferences, industrial visits, and educational tours to connect theoretical knowledge with real-world applications. Faculty members were encouraged to collaborate with industry professionals and experts to facilitate these activities.

To organize Alumni Engagements and to depute Mentors, Student Representatives for each class:

The Principal highlighted the significance of engaging with alumni and suggested involving them in mentoring programs. The alumni network will be utilized to establish connections between current students and successful graduates, offering guidance and support. Mentors will be assigned to each class to provide personalized assistance and counseling. Student representatives will also be selected to act as liaisons between the students and the administration.

Conduction of value-added programs, competitive classes:

The Principal proposed conducting value-added programs to enhance students' skills beyond the regular curriculum. These programs may include workshops, skill development sessions, and specialized training relevant to students' career prospects. Additionally, competitive classes will be organized to prepare interested students for competitive exams and external competitions.

To conduct Co-curricular & interdepartmental activities, Inter-college sports tournaments:

To promote holistic development and foster collaboration among students, the Principal suggested organizing co-curricular and interdepartmental activities. These activities will provide students with opportunities to showcase their talents, collaborate with peers from different disciplines, and build a sense of community. Inter-college sports tournaments will also be organized to encourage healthy competition and sportsmanship among students.

Motivational Guest Speakers, Guest Lectures department-wise:

The Principal recommended inviting motivational guest speakers and arranging guest lectures from industry experts and renowned academicians. These sessions will provide valuable insights, inspire students, and keep them updated with the latest developments in their respective fields. Faculty members were encouraged to identify suitable guest speakers and coordinate their visits department-wise.

To organize Value added courses for Semester 1st Students

The Principal elaborated on the importance of providing value-added courses to enhance the academic experience and skill set of students.

Various suggestions were put forth regarding the types of value-added courses that could be beneficial for Semester 1st students. Suggestions included courses related to communication skills, coding, financial literacy, and career development.

Action Items:

- The Principal will coordinate with faculty members and student representatives to finalize the dates and details of the Orientation Program and Fresher Day celebration.
- The committee for Class Time Table & Subject Allocation will be formed, consisting of faculty members from different departments. They will collaborate to create an optimized timetable.
- Faculty members will work together to prepare the Academic Calendar and Departmental Calendars, incorporating important dates and events.
- Faculty members will design internal examination and assessment methods, and communicate the schedules and evaluation criteria to students.
- Faculty members will explore opportunities for seminars, conferences, industrial visits, and educational tours, coordinating with industry professionals and experts.
- The administration will establish a system to engage alumni, assign mentors to classes, and select student representatives.
- Faculty members will develop and implement value-added programs and competitive classes to enhance students' skills.
- The administration will coordinate the organization of co-curricular and interdepartmental activities, as well as inter-college sports tournaments.
- Faculty members will identify and invite motivational guest speakers and guest lecturers, ensuring department-wise representation.
- The Academic Committee will compile a list of potential value-added courses based on the suggestions provided during the meeting.

These action items will be followed up on in subsequent meetings to track progress and ensure successful implementation of the proposed agendas.

Closing:

The Principal expressed gratitude to the teachers for their active participation and valuable contributions during the meeting. It was emphasized that their input plays a crucial role in shaping the academic environment for the students. Principal assured the faculties that their suggestions and concerns would be taken into consideration while implementing the discussed agendas.

The meeting concluded at 01.00 PM. The next meeting will be scheduled and communicated to the committee members accordingly.
